

Call for Papers

International research project to mark the 200th anniversary of The World as Will and Representation: The New Century of Schopenhauer

Summary

This research project is financially supported by the Japan Society for Promotion of Science (JSPS, No. 17H02281) and is calling for papers focussing on research in the area of young Schopenhauer to be presented at the international conference on 21 and 22 February 2018 hosted by Kwansai Gakuin University in Nishinomiya (not far from Kyoto and Osaka). The project team works closely with the Japan Schopenhauer Association.

A further three international conferences (with calls for papers) will be held in Japan in February 2019 and February 2020, and in the autumn of 2019 in Germany. We are also participating in the Schopenhauer section of the World Congress of Philosophy (WCP) 2018 in Beijing.

Young scholars are particularly encouraged to apply. We expect papers that can broaden the horizons of Schopenhauer research.

Terms of application

Eligibility: All welcome

Deadline: October 31, 2017 Language:

German or English

Selection panel: The project team's editorial committee (double blind peer review)

Publication: The papers given at the conference may be published.

Travel Expenses: Up to two delegates selected by the panel will be supported to attend the conference with travel expenses (flight and hotel).

Terms of submission of the paper

1. The paper should be dedicated to the research area of the young Schopenhauer (background and genesis of The World as Will and Representation).
2. The paper should not exceed 10 pages including notes.
3. Please submit your paper as an e-mail attachment in MS Word DOC/DOCX format or PDF file (no scanned file) with the subject "Submission for the Call for Papers" to the secretariat of the research project by 31 October 2017. Please find the email address of the secretariat on our HP: <http://schopenhauer.org/wwv200/> (underneath). The secretariat of the research project reserves the right to request the printed version and/or the text on a data storage device (e.g., USB mass storage) by airmail if necessary.
4. The editorial committee will evaluate all the proposals and decide which to accept for the conference. You will be informed of the outcome as soon as possible, at the latest by the end of November 2017. We regret that any hardcopies of submitted papers and materials cannot be returned.
5. If your paper is presented at the conference copyright will be retained for possible publication purposes by the research project team.

Secretariat of the JSPS research project team "The New Century of Schopenhauer":

Secretariat of the Japan Schopenhauer Association c/o Prof. Takao Ito, Soka University, 1-236, Tangimachi, Hachioji-shi, Tokyo 192- 8577, Japan

Email: Please see our HP <http://schopenhauer.org/wwv200/>